On a Sunday morning Gebre was rushing to his farm for weeding. As he crosses the nearby small river, he saw Kefelegn lying at the bank of the river. He was soaked in blood and his body was terrible cold as he spent the night there. Gebre approached Kefelegn and asked what happened to him. Kefelegn replied, —Kifusew did this to me; he shot at me twice and left me for a dead. Gebre took Kefelegn to the hospital. He was admitted; and he told the same story to the investigating police officer. Unfortunately, Kefelegn passed away as the investigation progresses.

- ☐ a. Statement of Kefelegn to the Gebre is admissible as a dying declaration while his statement to the police is admissible as a witness because Kefelegn cannot appear in court.
- ☐ b. The statement of Kefelegn both to Gebre and the investigating police officer is not admissible because it is hearsay.
- ☒ c. Statements of Kefelegn, both to Gebre and the investigating police officer, are admissible as dying declaration.
- ☐ d. Those statements are not admissible as dying declaration because Kefelegn did not foresee his impending death.

Mr. X passed away on 10, January 2023 leaving three written wills. The written documents embodying the will were duly made. One of the will was dated November 20, 2011; the other December 1, 2018 and the third January 2, 2022. However, at the opening of the will, the heirs found out that the three wills contradicted one another on a crucial point of inheritance of Mr. X's single residential house. The first will gave the house exclusively to his eldest son; the second one to his youngest daughter and the third one to his uncle. How should the matter be resolved?

- ☐ a. The November 20, 2011 will shall prevail.
- ☐ b. The house should be the joint property of the three heirs.
- ☐ c. The matter should left to the discretion of the court.
- ☒ d. The January 2nd 2022 will shall prevail.

Mr. Alemu lost his wrist watch on January 1, 2000 while he was visiting the historic site of Axum Tsiyon. A year later on the same date, Kiflom found the watch almost buried under dirt. The latter announced his find through the church and the local newspaper and personally tried to find the owner but in vain. Giving up the hope of finding the owner, Mr. Kiflom gave the watch in pledge to Mr. Hagos to secure his debt on January 1, 2007. Mr. Alemu heard of the finding of his watch this year (January 1, 2023) when he came to Axum Tsiyon and claimed restitution of the watch. However, Kiflom could not do so since he has already pledged it. Given this fact, which one of the following is valid?

- ☐ a. Mr. Alemu can use self-help to recover the watch from Mr. Hagos.
- ☐ b. Mr. Hagos has become the owner of the watch.
- ☐ c. Mr. Alemu can successfully file a recovery suit to recover the watch from Mr. Kiflom.
- ☒ d. Mr. Kiflom has now become the owner of the watch.

Suppose Mr. A and Mrs. B succeeded their later father, Mr. C. The hereditary estate was liquidated and the partition was made based on an agreement concluded between the two. After the end of the partition, Mrs. B discovered that Mrs. B deliberately concealed gold worth Birr 300,000.00 that should have been part of the succession. The gold is now in her possession. What should be the proper course of action under the law?

Time left 0:18:14

- ☐ a. The partition agreement should be invalidated to divide up between the two the gold as well as the previously divided property anew.
- ☐ b. The value of the gold should be divided up equally between the two heirs.
- ☐ c. Without affecting the partition previously made, a supplementary partition shall be made in relation to such the gold.
- ☐ d. Mrs. B shall be punished by depriving her of any share in the gold, which should go to Mr. A entirely.
